

JUS SANGUINIS

Italian Dual Citizenship by DESCENT

WHAT IS JUS SANGUINIS?

WHAT DOES THE PHRASE “JUS SANGUINIS” REFER TO IN REGARD TO ITALIAN DUAL CITIZENSHIP?

If you have roots in Italy, either through your parents, grandparents, or even great-grandparents, you may be eligible for citizenship through Jus Sanguinis. The term is also known as Citizenship by Descent or “Right of Blood”.

This method allows individuals to obtain Italian citizenship based on their ancestry or descent, even if the individual was born outside of Italy.

To claim this right, you must be able to prove your direct descent from an Italian ancestor, which can require extensive genealogical research and documentation. The process can be intricate, and it is essential to do thorough research and provide proper documentation to prove your eligibility.
